

~ Call for Papers ~
USC Dornsife INET Presents
A Conference on Inequality, Globalization, and Macroeconomics

The USC Dornsife Institute for New Economic Thinking organizing committee invites submissions of research papers for presentation at its upcoming conference on "Inequality, Globalization, and Macroeconomics" to be held on April 28-29, 2017 at the University of Southern California.

The goal of the conference is to bring together leading researchers to discuss and present new approaches and new results on the relationships between Inequality and Macroeconomics and between Inequality and Globalization. The committee is looking for novel theoretical and empirical contributions on said issues from researchers working in the fields of macroeconomics, international finance, international trade, and applied economics.

Please submit your paper to inet@usc.edu with the title "Inequity Conference Paper" by close of business on February 15, 2017. Authors of accepted papers will be notified via email by February 27, 2017. We will provide hotel accommodations for a two-night stay for conference presenters.

Best wishes,

On behalf of the USC Dornsife INET Conference Organizing Committee Members

Romain Ranciere (USC Dornsife INET)

Members of the organizing committee: Adrien Auclert (Stanford), Jess Benhabib (NYU), Wukuang Cun (USC Dornsife INET), Anna Emerald (USC Dornsife INET), Hashem Pesaran (USC Dornsife INET), and Romain Ranciere (USC Dornsife INET).

USC Dornsife INET
University of Southern California
University Park Campus
3620 South Vermont Ave
Kaprielian Hall, (Bldg. #253), Room #364
Los Angeles, California 90089
(213) 821-2120