Instructors in Economics

Pitzer College invites applications for instructors in Economics for the 2023-24 academic year. We are interested in applicants who have demonstrated excellence in teaching and research. Fields are open. ABD or Ph.D. is expected. We will hire a number of instructors to teach one or more economics courses. Monetary compensation will be approximately $9,300 per course or $67,000 for a five course one year full time position.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vita, copies of publications and/or working papers, and a statement of teaching philosophy, and arrange for three letters of recommendation. The cover letter and/or teaching statement should discuss the economics courses you are willing and able to teach, the courses you have taught in the past, and how your teaching, scholarship, and mentorship would support our commitment to equity and inclusion in economics.

Applications and questions should be submitted to Shelva_Paulse@Pitzer.edu. Applications will be accepted until the positions are filled. The Fall semester begins on August 28, 2023 and the Spring semester begins on January 16, 2024.

Pitzer College, a member of the Claremont Colleges, has a strong institutional commitment to diversity in all areas and strongly encourages candidates from underrepresented groups. We favor candidates who can contribute to the College's distinctive educational objectives, which promote interdisciplinary perspectives, intercultural understanding, and concern with social responsibility and the ethical implications of knowledge and action. Pitzer College is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. For the successful applicant with the relevant interests, affiliations are possible with the intercollegiate departments of Africana Studies, Asian American Studies, Chican@/Latin@ Studies, and/or the Intercollegiate Feminist Center for Teaching, Research, and Engagement.
