

Full-time Faculty Positions in Department of Economics (starting on 2024/2/1)

Description

The Department of Economics at National Chengchi University in Taiwan invites applications for tenure-track faculty positions with appointment of teaching and research duty starting on February 1, 2024. The full application materials should be sent by October 15, 2023.

Preferred Fields: Macroeconomics or International Finance.

Job Duty

Responsibilities include developing recognized research projects, directing graduate students, and conducting related public service. The normal primary teaching responsibilities are four courses per year, and may include courses in undergraduate, master, or doctoral programs.

Required Documents

Application materials should include :

1. A cover letter for application
2. A curriculum vitae
3. A photocopy of the applicant's Ph.D. degree certificate, or a formal letter from his/her supervisor to confirm that the applicant will receive the Ph.D. degree by the end of December 2023.
4. An official copy of transcript
5. Publications: such as degree dissertation, refereed papers and/or working papers within five years
6. Three recommendation letters

Employee Benefits:

1. Retirement Pension, national health insurance, and government employee insurance
2. Living allowance, including marriage, maternity, funeral and children education
3. Faculty housing
4. Research allowance

Please send your application files to: nccuecono@gmail.com

Phone: 886-2-29393091 ext. 51058