

Faculty Positions in Labor Economics-
Open Rank (Assistant/Associate/Full Professor)

Assistant Professor

Department of Economics

University of California, Riverside

The Department of Economics at the University of California, Riverside invites applications for two full-time faculty appointments (tenure-track or tenured) in labor economics beginning July 1, 2024. We are recruiting for one open rank position that may be at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor level and one that will be at the Assistant Professor level. We are particularly interested in candidates whose research explores policy-relevant issues in labor and labor-related fields. Candidates working in all areas of labor economics will be considered.

Candidates for a tenure track position at the rank of Assistant Professor must show potential for engaging in outstanding research and developing excellence in teaching graduate and undergraduate students. Applicants must be ABD or have met the requirements for the Ph.D. in Economics or a related field by the time of appointment July 1, 2024. Advanced assistant professors are encouraged to apply. Complete applications must include a cover letter, current CV, samples of research, statement of research, evidence of teaching excellence/teaching evaluations, a statement of contributions to diversity and 3 letters of recommendation.

Candidates for a tenured position of Associate or Full Professor must have an established record of outstanding research accomplishment and be committed to an active research program. Candidates will also be expected to have a proven record of teaching excellence, guide the research of doctoral students, and provide service to the university and profession. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Economics or a related field at the time of application. Complete applications must include a cover letter, current CV, samples of research, statement of research, evidence of teaching excellence/teaching evaluations, a statement of contributions to diversity, and the names and contact information of 3 references.

All applications should be submitted to <https://aprecruit.ucr.edu/apply/jpf01801>

Review of the applications will begin on November 20, 2023 and will continue until the positions are filled. Applications received by November 20, 2023 will receive full consideration.

Applicants who use Interfolio may utilize a feature provided by the Interfolio Service to allow Interfolio to upload their letters directly into AP Recruit. Applicants can input an Interfolio-generated email address in place of their letter writer's email address. Interfolio refers to this as Online Application Deliveries. The following link on the Interfolio website shows how to set this up (<http://help.interfolio.com/entries/24062742-Uploading-Letters-to-an-Online-Application-System>)
