

Instructor of Economics

Pitzer College, a member of the Claremont Colleges, is seeking to fill several one-semester instructor positions in Economics for the Spring 2019 semester. Instructors will teach upper-level undergraduate courses in Economics. The fields are open. Candidates should have demonstrated excellence in teaching, and a Ph.D. in economics is preferred.

Interested candidates should submit electronic materials to Professor Linus Yamane at lyamane@pitzer.edu. Complete applications must include letter of application, curriculum vitae, proposed syllabi, teaching evaluations, and contact information for three references.

Pitzer College is a small liberal arts college with a strong institutional commitment to diversity in all areas and strongly encourages candidates from underrepresented groups. We favor candidates who can contribute to the College's distinctive educational objectives, which promote interdisciplinary perspectives, intercultural understanding, and concern with social responsibility and the ethical implications of knowledge and action. Pitzer College is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

Full consideration will be given to complete applications received by October 10, 2018. Applications will be accepted until the positions are filled.
